Reflection Questions

1. Have you ever heard this passage of Scripture or topic taught on before? What stood out to you?

2. Read 1 Kings 18:1-6 we see that it's clear that Elijah and Obadiah play very different roles in God's Kingdom, yet they are both important. Obadiah and Elijah both resist getting angry with the other about their role in God's Kingdom. Do you find yourself easily angered or even annoyed at other believers for playing different roles in God's Kingdom? Why or why not? Is there any believer or group of believers in particular?

3. Read 1 Kings 18:7-16. Obadiah clearly, and without contention, explains his problem with what Elijah is asking him to do. Elijah, then clearly and without contention answers Obadiah. How well do you address conflict, talking through it clearly, without contention? What most often causes you to be contentious when address conflict?

4. Read 1 Kings 18:17-18. Here, the evil King Ahab address Elijah as the evil one. Elijah responds by clearly pointing to what King Ahab did, which was against God's Word. How can you better point people to God's Word in your interactions?

5. How can you help those around you to handle conflict in a more Biblical way?

6. What is your biggest take away about how this passage affects your life? What do you need to work on? Who can you share this with and ask you to keep you accountable to accomplishing this?

The Life of Elijah – Week 4

5/21/23 - 1 Kings 18:1-19 – A Lesson in Handling Conflict

In this passage of God's Word, we see Elijah running into another man who feared the Lord, Obadiah. When Elijah asks Obadiah to give King Ahab a message, Obadiah immediately resists, stating that King Ahab will kill him if Elijah isn't found. The two work through their conflict, and in doing so, give us a lesson on handling conflict. By taking a look at this encounter, learn to:

1. Realize God has different _____ for each of us in His Kingdom

1 Kings 18:1-6, 1 Cor. 12, Rom. 12:3-8, Eph. 4:11-12

2. Talk out conflict directly, without _____

1 Kings 18:7-16, 1 Cor. 1:10, Matt. 18:15-17, Jam. 1:19, Prov. 15:1, Rom. 12:17-21

3. Always point to God's _____

1 Kings 18:17-18, 2 Tim. 3:16, Heb. 4:12, Rom. 15:4, John 1:1, 14, Matt. 4:4
