By taking a look at this part of Elijah's life, we can learn several things about interacting with mental health. This passage of God's Word helps us to realize:

1. No one is _____ to mental illness

5. Accept God's _____ and _____
1 Kings 19:5-8, Matt. 11:28-30, Ps. 23:1-2, 127:2, Ex. 33:14
6. God may speak to you in ways that you don't _____
1 Kings 19:11-13, Ex. 3:1-12, John 10:27-28, Heb. 1:1-2
7. Trust in God's _____ over your own
1 Kings 19:8, Is. 40:30-31, Ps. 27:14, 2 Pet. 3:8, Lam. 3:25-26
8. Process the _____ that led you here
1 Kings 19:15, 1 John 1:9, Phil. 3:13-14, 2 Cor. 5:17

Reflection Questions

1. Have you ever heard this passage of Scripture or topic taught on before? What stood out to you?
2. How do you feel like going through this passage of Scripture helped you to interact with mental illness in a more Biblical way?
3. Read 1 Kings 19:4. Have you ever felt like Elijah did in 1 Kings 19:4? If so, what was the context, and what happened to your relationship with God during that time?
4. The enemy is attacking Elijah hard during this season of his life. Have you ever gone through a similar season of life? How does the enemy most often attack you?
5. Throughout this passage of God's Word, the Lord is kind to Elijah. He graciously helps him through the difficult time, giving him rest, food, time with Him, and a pathway out of the difficult season, all without allowing him to stay in his distress. What does that tell you about the way that God interacts with you?
6. How do you feel like studying and applying this passage of Scripture to your life can help you to help others that are going through difficult times in their life?
7. What is your biggest take away about how this passage affects your life? What do you need to work on? Who can you share this with and ask you to keep you accountable to accomplishing this?
