Matthew 22:36-39

“Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?”
And he said to him, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

Reflecting on God's Word

Getting Started

- Take some time to read over Matthew 22:34-40 and pray.
- Have you ever read or heard about this before? What stood out to you as we were talking about it?
- What surprised you as we talked about it?
- As you reflect on Jesus' Words from this part of Scripture, on a scale from 1-10, where do you feel like your faith is during this season of your life?

Diving In

1. As you think of your heart being a combination of the direction of your life, your interests, resources, and possessions, how well are you loving God with all of your heart during this season of your life? How could you better love God with all of your heart?

2. As you think of your soul being a combination of your physical being and what you do with it, how well are you loving God with all of your soul during this season of your life? How could you better love God with all of your soul?

3. As you think of your mind being a combination of thoughts and ruminations, how well are you loving God with all of your mind during this season of your life? How could you better love God with all of your mind?

4. As you think of your strength being a combination of your energy and will, how well are you loving God with all of your strength during this season of your life? How could you better love God with all of your strength?

5. Jesus makes it clear that you can't love God without also loving others. Read 1 John 4:20. How can you better love others like Jesus instructs us to?

6. Ultimately, our faith isn't something that we get just by doing things. Read Ephesians 2:8-9. It starts by repenting of our sins, and accepting Jesus Christ as our personal Lord and Savior. Then, we can allow God to do His work in our lives. Who around you can you invite to follow Jesus?

Applying the Scripture

What are your biggest takeaways from this passage of God's Word?

- What practical step(s) do you need to implement in your life to apply what God has taught you in this passage of Scripture?
- How would applying this affect your life and your relationship with the Lord?
- Who can you ask to keep you accountable to applying this to your life?
