Reflecting on God's Word

Getting Started

- Take some time to read over Matthew 25:31-46 and pray.
- Have you ever read or heard about this before? What stood out to you as we were talking about it?
- What surprised you as we talked about it?
- As you reflect on Jesus' teaching to His disciples here, think about your own life. Are you clear on what God has called you to do? if not, spend time in prayer asking for God to make clear what He has called you to do. If you are clear, are you being faithful to do what He's called you to do?

Diving In

1. What would it look like for you to give God your all? Are you holding anything back from Him?
2. Have you ever been criticized for doing what God has called you to do? How can you make sure that criticism doesn't stop you from doing what God has called you to do in the future?
3. Have you ever been distracted from God's specific calling in your life, by other good things? What happened? How can you make sure to stay focused on what God has called you to do?
4. Have you ever been faithful, but also felt discouraged because you didn't know what role you were playing in God's Kingdom? What happened? How can you better remember that if you're doing something that God has called you, that you play a critical role in God's Kingdom?
5. Read Matthew 6:4. How would remembering this verse help you to be faithful to do what God has called you to do?
