Reflecting on God's Word

Getting Started

- Take some time to read over Acts 2:14-36 and pray.
- Have you ever read or heard about this before? What stood out to you as we were talking about it?
- What surprised you as we talked about it?
- As you reflect on this sermon series, what questions come to mind?
- As you think about this sermon that Peter gave, what do you think was going through the minds of the people listening?
- Have you ever struggled to know exactly how to tell someone about Jesus? How so? Why is that?
- Who has God put on your heart to share the Gospel with? Have you been faithful with what God has asked you to do?
- Take some time to jot down anyone's name that God has put on your heart to reach out to. Pray over each person, asking that God would give you opportunities to talk with them about who He is.

Diving In

1. How comfortable are you with reading God's Word with people and explaining it to them. What would help you to do that more?
2. Do you feel like you can adequately explain God's plan for salvation? If now, what would help you to be able to?
3. Read Romans 2:4. Sometimes we can too easily forget that God's kindness leads us to repentance. How can you best explain that concept with people?
4. Peter calls out the people for crucifying Jesus. He also calls them to repent. He does a good job at balancing God's forgiveness, while clearly explaining our need to be forgiven. Do you feel like you balance these things well?
5. How easily do you ask people to follow Jesus? Why is that?
